Serves 6 | Main | Prep 20 min | Cook 30 min

INGREDIENTS

900g Ground turkey / 100g Dried cranberries, chopped / 60g Panko breadcrumbs / 1 count Egg / 10g Fresh sage, minced / 8g Salt / 3g Black pepper / 30mL Olive oil / 250mL Chicken broth / 900 g Potatoes, cut into 2 cm cubes / 600 g Green beans, trimmed / 30 mL Olive oil for vegetables / 3 g Salt for vegetables

METHOD

1. Preheat the oven to 400°F / 200°C. Line a large rimmed baking sheet with parchment paper. Toss potatoes with 20 mL oil and 2 g salt on a separate rimmed tray; roast for 10 minutes before adding the meatballs.
2. In a large bowl, gently combine turkey, cranberries, breadcrumbs, egg, sage, salt, and pepper until just mixed; do not overwork.
3. Shape the mixture into 18 equal meatballs, approximately 60g each.
4. Heat olive oil in a large oven-safe skillet over medium-high heat. Brown the meatballs in batches for 5 minutes, turning carefully.
5. Transfer browned meatballs to the prepared baking sheet. Pour chicken broth into the pan to deglaze, then pour over the meatballs.
6. Bake for 15-20 minutes until the center of the meatballs reaches 165°F / 74°C. Continue roasting potatoes until tender, about 30-40 minutes total. Toss green beans with the remaining vegetable oil and salt and add to the potato tray for its final 15 minutes.
7. Remove from the oven and let rest for 5 minutes. Serve three meatballs per person with pan juices. Divide the roasted potatoes and green beans among the six plates.
8. Refrigerate leftovers within 2 hours; consume within 3-4 days. Reheat to 165°F / 74°C.
