

Maple Glazed Roasted Pumpkin Seeds

Serves 6 | Snack | Prep 15 min | Cook 25 min

INGREDIENTS

300g Raw pumpkin seeds / 45mL Maple syrup / 30g Melted butter / 5g Sea salt / 2g Ground nutmeg

METHOD

1. Preheat the oven to 350°F / 175°C. Line a baking sheet with parchment paper.
2. Rinse seeds thoroughly and pat completely dry with a clean kitchen towel to ensure crunchiness.
3. In a medium bowl, toss the dry seeds with melted butter, maple syrup, nutmeg, and salt until evenly coated.
4. Spread the seeds in a single layer on the baking sheet, ensuring they do not overlap.
5. Roast for 20-25 minutes, stirring every 8 minutes to prevent burning and ensure even caramelization.
6. Remove when seeds are deep golden brown. They will continue to crisp up as they cool.
7. Divide into six small bowls, approximately 50g each.
8. Store in an airtight container at room temperature for up to 5 days; if they lose crispness, re-toast in the oven for 3 minutes.
