

Apple and Raisin Hand Pies

Serves 6 | Snack | Prep 25 min | Cook 30 min

INGREDIENTS

500g Puff pastry sheets, thawed refrigerated / 450g Apples, peeled and finely diced / 60g Raisins / 40g Brown sugar / 15mL Lemon juice / 3g Ground cinnamon / 15g Cornstarch / 45mL Water / 1 large, about 50g Egg, beaten

METHOD

1. Preheat the oven to 400°F / 200°C. Put apples, raisins, sugar, lemon juice and cinnamon in a saucepan with 30mL water.
2. Simmer for 5 minutes. Mix cornstarch with the remaining water, stir into the fruit and cook for 1 minute until thickened. Spread filling on a plate and cool completely.
3. Keep pastry cold while cutting twelve equal rectangles. Spoon cooled filling onto six rectangles, leaving a clear 1cm border around the edges.
4. Cover each with another rectangle. Press edges firmly with a fork, cut two small steam vents in each top and transfer to a lined tray.
5. Brush with beaten egg. Bake for 20-25 minutes until deeply golden, with cooked pastry at the base and no wet egg glaze.
6. Cool for 10 minutes before serving one pie per person. Refrigerate any leftover pies within 2 hours.
