Serves 6 | Snack | Prep 15 min | Cook 25 min

INGREDIENTS

500g Cooked short-grain rice, cold / 5g Nori sheets, finely shredded / 15mL Soy sauce / 10mL Sesame oil / 20g Cornstarch / 10g Toasted sesame seeds

METHOD

1. Preheat the oven to 400°F / 200°C and line a large baking sheet with parchment paper.
2. In a bowl, mix cold rice with shredded nori, soy sauce, sesame oil, and cornstarch until the rice is sticky and well-coated.
3. Spread the mixture onto the parchment paper in a very thin, even layer about 0.5cm thick.
4. Bake for 20-25 minutes, checking frequently, until the edges are golden brown and the center is completely crisp.
5. Remove from the oven and while still warm, sprinkle immediately with sesame seeds.
6. Let the sheet cool completely on the tray, as it will continue to harden and become crunchy.
7. Break the large sheet into smaller, irregular snack-sized shards.
8. Divide into six portions and serve.
